

A woman with long, flowing red hair is suspended in the air, wearing a black leotard and a large, voluminous black tutu. She is being held up by three shirtless men whose arms are visible at the bottom of the frame. The woman's hair is flying upwards, and several black feathers are scattered in the air around her. In the background, a large, stylized purple letter 'D' is partially visible.

Hello!

We are thrilled to share this season of live events across our three beautiful stages for autumn through to spring.

We welcome some absolutely brilliant artists and performers - local superstars alongside international talents. Hydrocracker, Fatt Butcher, LUNG Theatre, Lost Dog, Thick & Tight, Seeta Patel, and a new play from Inua Ellams, just some of the really special theatre and dance coming to the city.

Our Words programme grows richer year on year, from Marina Hyde and Caitlin Moran to Hamza Yassin and the fantastic Hollie McNish & Harry Baker.

Brighton Dome Comedy Festival (pictured overleaf) is our flagship autumn event, for the first time in collaboration with Komedia - it's a stellar line-up. Look out for opportunities for young people to build comedy skills too...

Christmas brings a host of treats - familiar favourites and new events for all ages. We welcome the return of Circa, one of the world's most loved circus companies, playing to packed houses every time they come to Brighton.

Brighton Dome is the home of Create Music, so it is thrilling to welcome back One Voice festival of singing for a second year. The music programme - music from all genres, eras and corners of the world - offers a chance to see legendary orchestras and artists perform live.

Beyond this brochure, we will continue to add surprises so make sure you follow us on social media and sign up to our newsletter.

Whatever your taste, we hope you see yourself in this season, and find light in it as the nights draw in.

See you here!

Lucy Davies

Crush

Get hit right in the feels as this British-Somali rom-com tells a tender tale to warm your heart, exploring identity and connection. An unlikely meet-cute brings Somali teens Namja and Zakariya together on their messy paths to healing.

Neither was ready to talk until they met each other, instead using their art and poetry to navigate their worlds.

Fire Fire

Written by John Webber | Directed by Jennifer Tang

Eddie is holding a memorial for his brother. Paige closes the road to it in a climate protest. After insults are traded they expect to never see each other again. But they do. Again and again.

Fire Fire is an exciting, moving drama about people taking big risks to protest and how some people discover they have a deeper purpose in common.

Once Upon a Time in Sokoto

By Inua Ellams

Directed by Roy Alexander Weise

An epic story of a beautiful but unlikely friendship forged between an enslaved woman and her former master. Differences in faith, culture and heritage are overcome in the face of new enemies, in a gripping family drama set against the backdrop of events leading to the creation of Nigeria.

Woodhill

'I dance in the horror of grief'

Three men at Woodhill prison are dead. Their families demand answers. This is a call to arms about the crisis facing prisons.

Gut punching choreography and unflinching beats shine a light on the hidden story of HMP Woodhill. Lyrically told in their own words, three families investigate what happened to their boys. What they discover is so haunting, it turns their world upside down.

Pushing the form of documentary theatre and dance, Woodhill is an explosive true story by multi-award-winning LUNG and originally developed with The North Wall.

Juliet & Romeo

It turns out they didn't die in a tragic misunderstanding, they grew up and lived happily ever after. Well, they lived at least.

From award-winning director/choreographer Ben Duke comes a humorous and heartfelt duet of dance, theatre and comedy, revealing the real story of Romeo and Juliet.

Nation

This is a story about a perfect town where something very bad has just happened.

And you were all there to see.

Written and performed by Sam Ward, this Edinburgh Fringe 2024 hit is a dark, brutal fable about the political power of stories, about the nation as an act of imagination, about the violence of community and those we choose to let in.

The Rite of Spring

A powerful triple bill of spiritual, electrifying dance.

Seeta Patel's Olivier Award–nominated The Rite of Spring is the heart of the evening; a bold reimagining of Igor Stravinsky's iconic score through the lens of Bharatanatyam.

In a solo performance, Shree traces Mother Earth's journey from creation to destruction through movement, rhythm and expression.

The evening concludes with an intimate Q&A with Seeta Patel herself.

Ceilidh the Musical

Toast, Dance, Be Part of the Story

Step into the heart of one of Scotland's oldest and most beloved traditions in a new immersive musical.

Led by a lively caller, you'll be swept up in a whirlwind of music and memories from the moment you walk through the door. But as the music builds and the night takes hold, a story of family, love and legacy unfolds, and you discover why tonight's ceilidh matters more than most.

This joyous, irreverent, heart-pounding night is created by award-winning duo Scott Gilmour and Claire McKenzie (Noisemaker) and directed and choreographed by Tony Award-winner Sam Pinkleton (Oh, Mary!).
