

Together, I am – 4pm

What's on and Where

All Day	Table tennis with Brighton Table Tennis Club of Sanctuary	Brighton Dome
All Day	Crisis Classroom - a place to feel connected. Making activities, suitable for all the family	Brighton Dome Mezzanine
All Day	Ndebele doll-making with Phati Mnguni	Brighton Museum
All Day	Sand painting with Mo Saine	Brighton Dome
All Day	Network of International Women Tapestry workshop	Brighton Dome
All Day	Stalls Sanctuary on Sea, HummingBird, Pathways to Independence, Amnesty, Global Social Club, Brighton & Hove Fostering Service, Stand Up to Racism	Brighton Dome
	Voices in Exile, The Trust for Developing Communities (TDC) and the Migrant ESOL Support Hub (MESH). You are invited to write about your countries of origin, places, food, sounds and memories you hold dear, which we will attach on to a world map.	Brighton Dome
All Day	Euro-Mernet - Exhibition of photos, poetry and artwork by refugees in and from the Euro-Mediterranean region. Free publications to take away. Live photo posting on social media, Backgammon set on the table ready to play.	Brighton Dome
All Day	'Art of the Bubble' by Gil Mualem- Doron - giant inflatable art installation around the theme of loneliness and isolation.	Brighton Dome
All Day	Photo exhibition of rescue of migrants & refugees in the Mediterranean taken by Sea-Watch.org	Brighton Dome
All Day	Henna Tattoos by Maha	Brighton Dome
All Day	Flag and bunting making in support of Fly the Flag. Make your own flags and bunting to be displayed alongside Ai Weiwei 's at Brighton Dome until Fri 12 July	Brighton Dome
All Day	Sewlarity invite you to write/sew/embroider/cut+stick a square with your own message of love and solidarity to survivors everywhere. Each Square will be sewn together to create a banner to broadcast our solidarity to the world	Brighton Dome Mezzanine

11.00-14.00	Reading Corner - provided by Brighton & Hove Libraries. A shared quiet space with dual language picture books in community language. Reading and singing for parents & carers and their under 5s.	Brighton Dome Door 4 landing
11.30-13.30	West African drumming & singing workshop led by Ali Bagoura. Drop in and join in any time	Brighton Dome Concert Hall
12.00-13.30	"You, Me and those Who Came Before" debate chaired by Richard Williams (SOS) Panel: Zouhir Masri (Syrian refugee journalist), Dr Jacob Berkson (co-founder of Thousand 4 1000, Dina Nayeri (author of The Ungrateful Refugee), Naqeeb Saide (Hummingbird Young Leader), Jerida (All African Women Group)	Brighton Museum Old Court House (across the road)
13.00-15.00	The Place I Can't Be' by Gil Mualem-Doron - come to a photo booth and have your portrait taken	Brighton Dome
13.30-14.00	'State of Limbo', a documentary on immigrant detention in UK (running time 15 mins) plus Q&A	Brighton Museum Museum Lab
12.00 - 14.30	Delicious food served from Le Baobab Café and Sudanese and Oromo communities	Brighton Dome Fouders Room
14.00 - 14.15	Welcome by the newly elected Mayor of Brighton & Hove, Councillor Alexandra Phillips. Reflections on Refugee Week from Phati Mnguni	Brighton Dome
14.30-15.00	Talk by Dina Nayeri - author of Ungrateful Refugee. Dina will be signing copies of her book at Waterstones stall at approx 15.15	Brighton Museum Museum Lab
15.30 - 16.00	'State of Limbo', a documentary on immigrant detention in UK (running time 15 mins) plus Q&A	Brighton Museum Museum Lab

Refugee Week: The Gig

Live music by local refugee and migrant bands, presented by Sussex Refugee and Migrant Self Support Group and Thousand for a Thousand. Featuring Bakk Lamp Fall, tAngerinecAt and Bashir Al Gama.

Sun 23 Jun, 7pm, Latest Music Bar

Tickets – eventbrite.co.uk