

BWC (Brighton Women's Centre)

In partnership with Brighton Dome & Brighton Museum

Presents

International Women's Day Celebration 2019

Programme

Sat 9 Mar, from 10am–5pm, FREE
Brighton Dome & Brighton Museum

Everyone is welcome

Programme

Our IWD event is a safe and inclusive space, open to all members in the local community.

We welcome everyone who would like to join with us in celebration of International Women's Day.

To attend talks please arrive at the room early to secure your place. To attend workshops please sign up at the Brighton Women's Centre Stall in the West Corridor – all of today's talks and workshops are pay-as-you-feel and all proceeds from today's event will go to Brighton Women's Centre.

Look out for flash-mobs from Swallowsfeet Dance Collective and film screenings from Miss Represented throughout the day

All Day	All day in the Founders Room you will find the Brighton Feminist Book Shop pop-up (supported by Myriad Events), photo exhibitions; 'Body Positivity' by Fanny Beckman and 'Women of Brighton' by Fiona McNeillage , and from 12pm a Pay-As-You-Feel lunch buffet from the Real Junk Food Project . Also help artists Otilie Hainsworth and Hannah Eaton tell the bigger picture of IWD through illustration (supported by Myriad Editions and Baker Street Framing)	Brighton Dome - Founders Room
All Day	Head up to the Mezzanine for the children's play area to create a cultural tapestry with the Network of International Women , and talk 'belonging' with the BelongCon Conversation Corner!	Brighton Dome - Mezzanine
10.30 - 11.30	Bec Milligan: Breathe, Move & Let Go Breath focussed and movement based yoga for balance and connection (suitable for all levels)	Brighton Museum - Seminar Room
10.30 - 12.00	Early Childhood Project: Children and Gender Parents and carers explore how we bring up children with a conscious anti-bias attitude (children welcome)	Brighton Dome - Mezzanine Square
10.45 - 11:45	Aneesa Chaudhry: Sing Your Heart Out A lively workshop to get you singing your heart out (women only – includes all self-identifying women)	Brighton Dome - Concert Hall Stage
10.45 - 12.15	Lewes Football Club: A Level Playing Field Karen Dobres and Faye Baker Drawing a line under pay inequality in sport (with football chanting workshop!)	Brighton Museum - Museum Lab
10.45 - 12.45	Barclays Digital Eagles: Code Playground (drop-in sessions) Children's introduction to coding (aged 7–15)	Brighton Dome - Landing Area (East)
11.00 - 12.00	Miss Yasmin/Yasmin: A Whistleblower's Tour (& Guests) Entrepreneur, single parent and feminist Muslim on how she whistleblow to change her world	Brighton Museum - Education Pavillion
12.00 - 13.00	Jessica Ryan Ndegwa: Design For Disability Come up with your own design for the next great multi-functional product	Brighton Museum - Seminar Room
12.15 - 13.15	Soul Circus: Tackle Your Inner Critic Have fun exploring the critical names we call ourselves through song	Brighton Dome - Concert Hall Stage
12.15 - 13.15	PROUD: In conversation with Juno Dawson and Tanya Byrne Award-winning authors discuss the launch of PROUD, their teen LGBTQ anthology	Brighton Museum - Education Pavillion
12.30 - 13.30	Juliet Sargeant: All Art is Propaganda Juliet on winning gold at the Chelsea Flower Show with her "modern slavery" campaign garden	Brighton Museum - Museum Lab
13.15 - 14.15	In Roads Production: Learn Circus Skills Try your hand at juggling, aero-balance, plate spinning, hat balancing and more (suitable for all ages)	Brighton Dome - Landing Area (East)
14.45 - 15.45
13.30 - 14.30	History of deaf women and introduction to British Sign Language Learn about deaf women throughout history and try some basic British Sign Language	Brighton Museum - Education Pavillion
13.30 - 15.00	Brighton Women's Centre: Write For Life A fun introduction to the art of creative journaling for self-care and wellbeing	Brighton Museum - Seminar Room
13.30 - 15.00	Traumfrau's Listening Party of the Women's Liberation Music Archive (supported by Hush Beats Disco) A silent disco listening party of 70s and 80s feminist music (with visuals)	Brighton Dome - Mezzanine Square
13.45 - 15.00	The Choir with No Name: Explore the joy of singing Explore the joy of singing with Brighton's choir for homeless and marginalised people	Brighton Dome - Concert Hall Stage
14.00 - 15.00	Sophie Cook: Not Today: How I Chose Life Sophie traces a fascinating journey from private torment to personal triumph	Brighton Museum - Museum Lab
14.15 - 15.15	Female Empowerment! Placard Making with Lydia Fisher (Baxter & Bailey) Paint your own placard with words of female empowerment (supported by A.S. Handover) - not suitable for children	Brighton Museum - Art Room
14.45 - 15.45	Free the Nipple: Body Positivity Learn from the Free The Nipple movement while exploring body equality and positivity	Brighton Museum - Education Pavillion

15.30 - 16.30

Soul of the City: Pop/Soul Choir Taste

Learn to sing with a choir in just 60 minutes then jam it with a live guitarist

Meet in the Museum Foyer

15.30 - 17.00

Justice for Women: Panel Discussion

Chair: Lisa Dando - BWC
Panellists: Caroline Lucas - Green Party,
Lady Unchained - National Prison Radio, Meena Patel - Southall
Black Sisters, Claire Cain - Women In Prison

Brighton Museum
Seminar Room

15.45 - 16.45

Sister Society and Red Box Project: Tackling Period Poverty

An arts and crafts workshop to help make sure no girl misses school because of her period

Old Courtroom
Talk Stage

16.00 - 17.00

Umi Sinha and Ruth Figgess: The Desire to Belong

These authors explore the power of family patterns, belonging and the struggle for equality - not suitable for children

Old Courtroom
Talk Stage

16.00 - 16.45

Mothers Uncovered: The Secret Life of Mothers

Short readings from 'The Secret Life of Mothers' with live music performance

Museum Seminar
Room

All areas are accessible to wheelchair users.

For more information about access at Brighton Dome visit brightondome.org/access or get in touch at access@brightondome.org or call 01273 261525 / 541

For more information about access at Brighton Museum visit: brightonmuseums.org.uk/brighton/plan-your-visit/accessibility

brightoninternationalwomensday.com

#BrightonIWD2019

co-produced by:

with thanks to:

Programme of events are subject to change. Illustration by Isobel Lundie

