

A man with a beard, wearing a tall red party hat and a costume made of shiny, multi-colored tinsel, is singing into a microphone. He is surrounded by more tinsel and streamers. The background is a warm, orange and red gradient with a large, stylized white letter 'D' on the left. In the background, there are blurred lights and a large, illuminated letter 'S'.

Hello,

Welcome to this season of events to delight you and yours from autumn to spring.

Brighton Dome is all about the mix - local artists alongside household names, something familiar, something special - spread across our three beautiful stages and beyond.

From Le Gateau Chocolat to Stewart Lee, from JADE to Grayson Perry, from the Manic Street Preachers to Gary Clarke, from Arundhati Roy to Rosie Jones - we are here to make you laugh, think, dance, imagine, escape, dream and celebrate.

Brighton Dome Comedy Festival is our flagship autumn event with a stellar line-up. Look out for opportunities for young people to build comedy skills too...

Brighton Philharmonic Orchestra has a glorious eclectic programme across this season - classical masterpieces, jazz and film scores - bringing some world renowned musicians to the city.

There are magical festive treats – from music, singalongs and club nights to workshops, cabaret, and family gatherings. Highlights of the season include Flip Fabrique's Blizzard (p39), a gorgeous circus with live music from Canada, plus the return of the ceilidh – a long-standing Corn Exchange tradition. Brighton Dome is the home for the youth music service, Create Music, so it is thrilling to be hosting this year's One Voice festival of singing.

The theatre programme is particularly special as some of our finest theatre-makers present new work and greatest hits, and it's an honour to have the brilliant (and local) Liam Francis in the dance programme.

Beyond this brochure, we will continue to add surprises so make sure you follow us on social media and sign up to our e-newsletter.

Whatever your taste, we hope you see yourself in this season, and find light in it as the nights draw in.

See you here,

Lucy Davies

Shôn Dale-Jones

Stories From An Invisible Town

'Let me tell you about the imaginary town I lived in as a boy...'

A collection of dark comic stories by 'the great Welsh storyteller' (The Stage), Shôn Dale-Jones takes us through an imaginary town, picking up characters along the way. But as it starts to feel more real, Shôn wonders what's happening to his imagination - it's running riot. Joyous, stomach-turning, moving and very funny.

Tim Crouch

An Oak Tree

When I say sleep, you're free again.

A rare chance to see Tim Crouch's ground-breaking classic. When it opened in 2005, An Oak Tree changed the rules of the game, bringing into the action an actor who hasn't seen or read the play.

In a performance of controlled virtuosity, the playwright guides that actor through a story of loss, suggestion and the power of the mind.

No two shows are the same, with a different guest actor revealed each night. Previous guests include David Tennant, Jessie Buckley, Frances McDormand, F Murray Abraham, Russell Tovey, Phoebe Waller-Bridge, Meera Syal and many more.

Time Out

The Legends of Them

Reggae pioneer Sutara Gayle, AKA Lorna Gee, hears her radio debut from Holloway Prison. She's engulfed in the Brixton uprising, sparked by the police shooting of her sister. And now she's at a silent retreat, seeking spiritual guidance from her brother Mooji and Nanny of the Maroons.

A raucous, transcendent night out full of high-octane musical numbers and sharp comedy, Hackney Showroom's unmissable The Legends of Them is a roof-raising mixtape of Sutara Gayle's extraordinary life – and the legends that have guided her.

What if winter has taken over?

Not just outside, in the streets and in the fields,

But also in the houses, in the bedrooms

Underneath our clothes, and even right into our hearts.

Everything, absolutely everything, buried under the snow,
Obliterated by a white-out.

The north wind freezes time as it flows over us.

Would it be a catastrophe?

Or a chance to start over,

To fix our mistakes?

A new blank page

In the shape of a blizzard.

Brighton Dome and the Art Deco Seaside

Historian Dr Kathryn Ferry, author of a new book on Twentieth Century Seaside Architecture, explores the Art Deco redesign of Brighton Dome and the wider context of buildings from the interwar holiday boom. During the 1920s and 30s, competition between seaside resorts intensified as increasing numbers of British people won the right to paid holidays. For existing structures like the historic Dome, a modern revamp capitalised on the popularity of Hollywood movies and Riviera-inspired sun worship.

Brighton Dome & Brighton Festival

Situated in the Royal Pavilion Estate at the heart of the city, we are an arts charity made up of three historic venues; England's largest curated multi-arts Festival; and a music education hub, Create Music, reaching almost 20,000 young people across the region. Our purpose is to enable extraordinary experiences where people can come together to enjoy, imagine, create and change.

Brighton Dome & Brighton Festival

Situated in the Royal Pavilion Estate at the heart of the city, we are an arts charity made up of three historic venues; England's largest curated multi-arts Festival; and a music education hub, Create Music, reaching almost 20,000 young people across the region. Our purpose is to enable extraordinary experiences where people can come together to enjoy, imagine, create and change.
